

HISTORIC BRIGHTON PRESENTS
SALON III

NOTABLE BRIGHTON ARCHITECTS

Leon Stern - James B. Arnold - Herbert M. Stern

Leon Stern

James B. Arnold

Herbert M. Stern

James Burns Arnold designs

22 Menlo Place

James designed this modest dwelling for himself and his wife, Helen, date unknown

(Claude Bragdon stamped the drawings and the design has been officially attributed to him, but family records and drawing on file in Rare Books prove otherwise)

*255 Sandringham Road, Neo-Colonial Revival -
Designed by James B. Arnold AWV

*143 Pelham Road,
Georgian Revival designed by James B. Arnold AWV

*Turret and Front Entry Detail, 2625 Highland Avenue,
James B. Arnold design, French Normandy style, built in 1927 for Joseph Michaels AWV

Hornbeck-Gannett House

Built for Dr. Charles Sahler Hornbeck in 1928-29

Arnold & Stern , Architects

House sold to Frank and Caroline Gannett in 1933

21

The former Frank Gannett home in the Houston Barnard neighborhood. Photo by Elizabeth Brayer

Rear view of 195 Sandringham Road, photo date unknown, designed by Arnold & Stern